Reasons for Allowance

1. Examiner considered the IDS dated 05/28/2010; 06/15/2010 and 06/28/2010.
2. Claims 65, 67-88 dated 05/28/2010 will be allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The prior art references most closely resembling the applicants claimed invention is Beckert U.S Pat No. (6,175,789).

First, Beckert disclosed a vehicle computer system has a housing sized to be mounted in a vehicle dashboard or other appropriate location. A computer is mounted within the housing and executes an open platform, multitasking operating system. However Beckert failed to disclose, "Wherein authenticating devices connected to AMI-C bus at the gateway device using an application processor comprises: consulting a security database to determine whether a device attempting to access the AMI-C bus via a port node is authorized to communicate with the AMI-C bus and if the device is not authorized, instructing the port node to prevent any traffic from the unauthorized device from being passed from the device to the AMI-C bus". These limitations are incorporated into all of the independent claims (claims 65, 81).

In summary, the Examiner submits that Beckert taught all the limitations of independent claims in combination with other elements. Specifically prior art does not teach "Wherein authenticating devices connected to AMI-C bus at the gateway device using an application processor comprises: consulting a security database to determine whether a device attempting to access the AMI-C bus via a port node is authorized to communicate with the AMI-C bus and if the device is not authorized, instructing the port node to prevent any traffic from the unauthorized device from being passed from the device to the AMI-C bus"; therefore, claims 65, 67-88 have been deemed allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
